ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

Course Objective:

The objective of this course is to update DDA Careerists' awareness and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Administration Directorate and its components.

1. Please indicate on the scale below the degree to which the course met its objective:

2. What part of the course did you find the most useful?

Training for Tomorrow, jurisprudence and CIA, and security in CIA today.

3. What part of the course did you find the least useful?

Personnel Management in that, none of the questions asked were answered - nothing conclusive.

4. Please describe how the course benefited you.

It gave me greater insight into the operations of the various components in the Agency. (over)

5. What suggestions do you have for improving this course?

*Do away with graphs + charts, and some of the statistics in the lectures, we already have graphs in our kits. Show + Tell is much more interesting (actual cases).

(4) The relaxed atmosphere was conducive in helping make this one of the few courses to hold my interest, especially where lectures + speakers are concerned, and being able to ask questions ^{on an informal level} of the guest speaker gave it that added plus. Great course!

(5) * i.e. Several of the lecturers talked extensively on statistics rather than the workings of their office both functionally and operationally.
